

Industrial and special machine construction

Together for the best solution!

For more than 30 years, ACM have been offering customised complete solutions in various industrial sectors. We accompany our customers with expertise, know-how and new perspectives throughout the full course of the project.

To strengthen our team, we are looking to recruit an

POLYVALENT TECHNICIAN

(m/f/d)

FOR THE WORK PREPARATION

Essential duties and key responsibilities:

- Operation of our laser system
- Work support on the CNC sheet metal bending
- Handling of sawing machines and profile rollers

Required experience and skills:

- Hands-on mentality and methodical approach
- You are motivated and eager to learn
- You have convincing manual skills
- Teamwork and diligence are self-evident for you

We offer:

- A full-time job with an attractive salary according to your expertise
- You will work in a modern environment with further training opportunities
- An excellent working atmosphere as well as a varied job in different industry sectors

You feel addressed? You want to give your career an new orientation ?

Apply now. We look forward to receiving your complete application documents. Please state your salary expectations and the expected start date.

ACM A.G. attn. Management | Blausteinstraße,1 | B-4780 Recht
or by e-mail: job@acmetall.com